

We are looking for YOU!

All undergraduate students in a health-related field to spread TPIU's message of compassion
"To Take Care of Patients as if the Patient is U"

Submit a 500-word essay or a three-minute video describing why compassionate care matters to patients and providers. How do you envision the role of compassion in healthcare? What will you do to promote compassion in your practice? Submit all entries on the TPIU Web site by February 7, 2021, the last day of Patient Recognition Week.

We will announce 3 winners in the ESSAY category & 3 winners in the VIDEO category on April 7, 2021- World Health Day! TPIU will publish winning entries on the TPIU web site.

First-place winners will receive an award of $500.00

Second-place winners will receive an award of $250.00

Third-place winners will receive an award of $100.00

Please see the TPIU Compassion Essay/Video Contest Rules & Application at www.TPIU.com

Be sure to follow us  on Twitter @patient_U & on  Facebook!

No purchase is necessary to enter! To be eligible to enter, you must be a legal Connecticut resident or attending college in the State and are at least eighteen (18) years old at the time of entry. Entrants must be enrolled in a degree-granting health profession, or pre-medical or other recognized preparatory program such as a Health Career Pathway.

The Patient is U Foundation, Inc., a 501(c)(3) Organization